2013 US IPSC Nationals

March 4, 2013

Dear Regional Director,

On behalf of Universal Shooting Academy, the US IPSC Nationals, and Match Director Frank Garcia I would like to invite your regional shooters to the US IPSC Nationals to be held October 8 to 13, 2013 at Universal Shooting Academy in Frostproof, FL USA.

This will be a level III IPSC competition that also serves as a qualification match for the US Teams to World Shoot XVII to be held at this same facility in just over one year.

We would like to hold positions for our international competitors. Please respond to this email with the number of slots you would like to reserve. Online registration will open for all competitors on April 1, instructions can be found on the website.

Reservation requests for your region must be made by July 1, 2013 and paid for by August 31, 2013.

If you would like to register and pay for your entire region you may do that as well through contact with me. Please email or call anytime, I am here to facilitate your smooth registration for the match.

Much more information is available on the match website here:
